MCX Joins Hands with Banasthali University

Multi Commodity Exchange of India Limited (MCX), India's leading commodity exchange, and Banasthali Vidyapith, 'the world's largest fully residential university for women's education', located in the Tonk district of Rajasthan, have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) for supporting financial literacy among women. P. K. Singhal, Joint Managing Director of MCX said, "This association with Banasthali complements our current objective to carry benefits of the commodity derivatives market to all through financial education. Women's natural skills along with their intuition and analytical prowess can create a formidable workforce, which can support future needs of India Inc., especially in the area of commodity price risk management. Our joint educational initiatives will focus on supporting financial inclusion for women and go a long way in facilitating young women in India getting into the financial ecosystem, thus enabling their empowerment." Harsh Purohit, Dean-FMS-WISDOM, Banasthali Vidyapith also spoke at the event.
