Mint, 12 January 2009

MCX launches futures trading in electricity

New Delhi: Futures trading in electricity started on Friday in the country with leading commodity exchange MCX launching March and April contracts.

The contract can be traded between 10am and 11.55pm on week days, while on Saturday trading will continue till 2pm, the exchange said in a circular.

India Energy Exchange (IEX), promoted by MCX, deals in spot trading of electricity. PTI