Business Standard,
02 June 2010

MCX launches 1 tn lead mini contract

MCX launched a lead mini contract with a market lot size of one tonne as against the regular contract of five tonnes on Tuesday. The contract was expected to benefit small and medium enterprises in the automobile sector, particularly car battery manufacturers, and the acid-lead manufacturing industry.

NEWSWIRE18