LME & MCX seminars for investors

In a bid to educate investors about benefits of hedging and managing price risk, the London Metal Exchange in associaton with Financial Technology promoted Multi Commodity Exchange of India are organsing two seminars in Delhi and Mumbai. While the first interaction held in Mumbai on December 3rd attracted investors from western regions, the next meet scheduled for December 7th in Delhi is expected to educate commodity investors and professional from mental and financial services sector from norther India, a MCX press note on Wednesday said.