MCX ties up with Christ University

Mumbai, July 5

Multi Commodity Exchange and Christ University of Bengaluru have signed a memorandum of understanding to promote knowledge and research in commodities through various educational initiatives. The agreement will help develop skill sets, financial literacy and research in commodity price risk management and encourage academic engagement with industry and end-users. Christ University will launch various courses in commodity derivative markets and MCX will provide assistance. OUR BUREAU