Business Standard

MCX partners Mumbai b-school to promote financial literacy * Multi Commodity Exchange of India (MCX) today said it has signed an MoU with Mumbai's N L Dalmia Institute of Management Studies and Research to provide financial literacy in commodity derivatives to the institute's students.

The initiative is aimed at imparting knowledge about commodity price risk management and derivatives market, which would empower and open new vistas for the students in the direction of financial skill development, MCX said in a statement.