Axis Securities launches on MCX

Axis Securities, has become first bank to enter into commodity derivatives trading on Multi Commodity Exchange of India. Axis will educate its customers about futures trading in commodities such and will expand its product basket depending on customers' response, according to Axis Securities MD and CEO Arun Thukral.