Axis Securities takes MCX membership

AXIS SECURITIES, a subsidiary of Axis Bank on Thursday became the first bank-sponsored broking entity to take membership of commodity derivatives exchange, Multi Commodity Exchange of India after RBI allowed banks to provide broking services in commodities derivatives. The participation of such entities backed by financial institutions is expected to provide great impetus for the overall development of the commodities market.