

Multi Commodity Exchange of India Ltd (MCX), the No.1 Commodity Derivatives Exchange in India, has remained committed to developing the market for exchange-traded commodities and continues its efforts towards engaging all participants in strengthening the eco-system. The support and contribution from all the stakeholders is critical for MCX to succeed in its efforts.

MCX believes that the significant contributions from / amongst the various participants in the commodities markets, should be recognised, and to make available a platform to acknowledge the best in the industry, MCX has instituted "MCX AWARDS". One of such awards is in the category - 'Best contribution to the commodities market eco-system'.

Nominations invited for the award of "BEST CONTRIBUTION TO THE COMMODITIES MARKET ECO-SYSTEM"

To recognise the most significant and valuable contribution to the commodities market eco-system during the financial year 2016-17, MCX invites participants in India, from the following category of services:-

1. Vaults
2. Warehouse Service Providers (WSPs)
3. Training & Education Institutes
4. Research*
5. Assayers

*Any entity who is involved in the training and education activity in the Indian commodities market is eligible to nominate themselves.

Any entity who is involved in research activity in the Indian commodities market is eligible to nominate themselves.

Process

You can send your nominations by Wednesday 5th April, 2017. We request you to fill the attached form and duly supplement it with all relevant information, to help us judge the "Best contribution to the Commodities Market eco-system".

The form & other attachments (if any) should be emailed by 5th April 2017 to mcxawards@mcxindia.com

Note: The decision of the 'MCX Awards Committee' of MCX, on the nominations, shall be final and binding upon all participants. Please note that no queries / clarifications shall be entertained with regard to the decision.

Click here to download the nomination form