Press Release

Temporary Trading Halt in evening hours

Monday 4th September 2017: MCX observed a problem with its Trading system around 6:36pm today (4th September 2017). After assessing all the hardware, software & network aspects, it was decided to restart the trading system. Members were then allowed to re-login at 7:15pm. Between 7:25 to 7:35pm, Members were allowed to cancel their pending orders in the system, in a special session. Thereafter LIVE / Normal trading resumed at 7:36pm.

The matter is being examined for identifying the root cause which led to the issue.
